

A brief note regarding the Dumontier book...

This section of the Lectio Home Page contains a scanned copy of Saint Bernard et la Bible by Charles Dumontier published in 1953. Many consider it one of the finest books on lectio divina ever written, hence the reason why it is posted in six sections.

It would be a genuine contribution for someone to translate this book into English. If so, that translation would be greatly welcomed on this home page.
